A message from the Executive Director

The State Budget impasse continues to threaten services to area seniors. As I write this, it is day 98 without a State Budget and virtually no funding since early June. We have been operating on reserves and now borrowed funds to continue services to our County Seniors.

We have recently asked our service providers to please continue working with us until this dilemma has been resolved. And effective today (October 6, 2015) we have begun adding individuals in need of services to a waiting list that has not existed in this county for over 5 years. This will affect only new requests for services – folks currently on services will continue as usual until all resources have been expended. The exception to the waiting list will be Home Delivered Meals. Food will continue to be provided as long as possible. I'm hopeful that the situation is resolved before more significant steps need to be imposed.

So enough whining! Let's focus on the upcoming Thanksgiving Holiday Season and the joy it brings spending precious time with friends and family.

Thanks for all your continued support and please remember to exercise your right to vote on November 3, 2015

Joking Around

"What's a hipster?" asked my four-year-old cousin.

"Someone who will wear something just to look different," I said. "They'll often buy clothes in thrift shops and wear thick glasses."

"Is Grandma a hipster?" he asked.

Seeing her friend Sally wearing a new locket, Meg asks if there is a memento of some sort inside.

"Yes," says Sally, "a lock of my husband's hair."

"But Larry's still alive."

"I know, but his hair is gone."

An elderly man visits the doctor for a checkup. "Mr. Smith, you're in great shape," says the doctor afterward. "How do you do it?"

"Well," says Mr. Smith, "I don't drink, I don't smoke, and the good Lord looks out for me. For weeks now, every time I go to the bathroom in the middle of the night, he turns the light on for me."

Concerned, the doctor finds Mrs. Smith in the waiting room and tells her what her husband said.

"I don't think that's anything to worry about," she says. "And on the bright side, it does explain who's been peeing in the fridge."

Low-Income Energy Assistance

How does LIHEAP work?

LIHEAP offers both cash and crisis grants. Families may apply for: Cash Grants. Cash grants help families pay their heating bills. The grant payment is sent directly to your utility company or fuel provider, and it will be credited on your bill. (In some cases, the check may be mailed to you directly.)

Crisis Grants. Crisis grants may be available if you have an emergency situation and are in jeopardy of losing your heat.

Emergency situations include:

- Broken heating equipment or leaking lines that must be fixed or replaced.
- Lack of fuel.
- Termination of utility service.
- Danger of being without fuel or of having utility service terminated, (received a notice that service will be shut off within the next 60 days).

If you have a heating emergency please call your local county assistance office.

How do I apply?

- Apply online at: www.compass.state.pa.us
- Request an application by calling the Statewide LIHEAP Hotline at 1-866-857-7095 or TDD for the hearing impaired 1-800-451-5886.
- Applications are available at your local county assistance office.

To apply, you will need

- Names of people in your household.
- Dates of birth for all household members.
- Social Security Numbers for all household members.
- Proof of income for all household members.
- A recent heating bill.

Who is eligible?

You may qualify for a LIHEAP grant if your income meets the following income guidelines:

Household Size	Max Income Level (Per Year)
1	$17,655
2	$23,895
3	$30,135
4	$36,365
5	$42,615
6	$48,855
7	$55,095
8	$61,335

*For households with more than eight people, add $6,240 per additional person.

The Low-Income Home Energy Assistance Program

(LIHEAP) helps low-income families pay their heating bills. LIHEAP is a grant. You do not have to repay it.

- You don't have to be on public assistance.
- You don't need to have an unpaid heating bill.
- You can either rent or own your home.
